

#HateFreeOC Art Contest

Sponsored by OC Human Relations and Tarsadia Foundation

Theme: #HateFreeOC is an educational and awareness campaign to create and cultivate a hate-free Orange County and to bring diverse communities together to promote a peaceful and inclusive community for all to thrive.

Eligible students must attend school or live in Orange County, and are currently enrolled in grades 8th - 12th. Students must not be related to any OC Human Relations Commissioner, Board member, or employee. Each student may only submit one completed piece.

The art piece must be:

- No smaller than 8" by 10" and not to exceed 2ft by 3ft
- Submitted with a completed and signed art release form
- Hand made (drawing, collage, painting) or digitally designed
- Free of any profanity or inappropriate images

A scholarship will be awarded to the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners!

The first place winner will receive a $500 cash scholarship and have their art used on promotional items for the #HateFreeOC campaign. Two runner-ups will receive $250 cash scholarship. All winners will have their art showcased at our annual AWARDS Gala on May 4, 2017.

Deadline: Entries must be submitted by Friday, March 10, 2017 at 5:00PM. Submissions can be emailed, mailed or dropped off at our office located at: 1300 S. Grand Ave. Bldg. B, Santa Ana, CA 92705. Any questions, please contact Julie Vue, julie@ochumanrelations.org, 714.480.6596.

Only completed packets will be considered.
